

Tulsa County Assessor's Office

Taxpayer Bill of Rights

KEN YAZEL, Assessor

The Tulsa County Assessor is committed to the principle that each and every citizen is always:

- To be treated with courtesy and respect.
- To be treated fairly and equitably.
- To be provided prompt services and information.
- To be given personal and professional attention.
- To be provided an opportunity to have your suggestions and opinions heard and acted upon.
- To be informed of all exemptions for which you may be qualified to receive.
- To be referred to the appropriate department or individual in a friendly and courteous manner.
- To be informed as to how your property is being assessed and how to appeal your value.